Alleged Confession.

Erdman, elder of the Welcome mission bere, today corroborated the news from date set. Attorneys for Mrs. Schenk Alliance, Ohio, that Levi Lupton, apostle and head of the sect known as the tirely across the river. The passing Gift of Tongues, had confessed to indiscretion with a woman of that church, who was associated with him in his work in that city. "The elders of the Pentecostal movement, to which our church belongs." said Elder Erdman, 'have come to the concluston that the only punishment that would fit brother Lupton's act is to have him retire from active work in our church and live an upright life in retirement. Brother Lupton has opportunity to do this, for he has sent many missionaries into Africa and these have written repeatedly to him to go there and work with them. Lupton is a married man, but has no children. I do not know what his future plans are, but his sin will
